Outstanding Black Business & Professional Women to Be Honored in San Francisco

The Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc. – Gamma Nu Chapter honors outstanding Black business and professional women annually. This year's honorees are education leader Ella Clark-Tolliver and community activist and entrepreneur Velma Landers, plus the 2010 annual scholarship recipients!

San Francisco, CA, March 3, 2010 – On April 10, 2010, business and professional sorority Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc., will celebrate and honor two distinguished Black business women who have defied the odds and excelled in their respective fields: Education (Dr. Ella Clark-Tolliver) and Entrepreneurship (Velma Landers).

During the month of April every chapter in the Sorority celebrates the strides made by business and professional women. The Gamma Nu Chapter in San Francisco uses this occasion to present its annual business awards luncheon to bring attention to the outstanding accomplishments of Black business and professional women in the San Francisco Bay Area.

ABOUT OUR HONOREES:

Dr. Ella Clark-Tolliver has a BA in Psychology, MS in Counseling and a PhD in Education. Dr. Clark-Tolliver has been involved in the educational arena for almost 30 years and is the first African American female to serve as Dean of Counseling and Disability Services at Solano Community College in Fairfield, California

Velma Landers has been a community activist in San Francisco for over 20 years, and created the “Sunday Blues ‘N’ Jazz club – a social networking opportunity for people to exchange professional ideas while listening to Blues music

The luncheon will take place on Saturday, April 10, 2010 at the Holiday Inn San Francisco Airport North, 275 South Airport Boulevard, South San Francisco, CA 94080. A silent auction begins at 11:30 a.m. and the program begins at 12:30 pm. Tickets are $50.00, per person, and are on sale now.

Tickets can be purchased online at iotasf.ticketleap.com, at the door or from the sorority by calling 415-668-6180. More information is available online at: www.iotasf.org
